Charles N. Steele, Esq.
Federal Election Commission
999 East Street
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Steele:

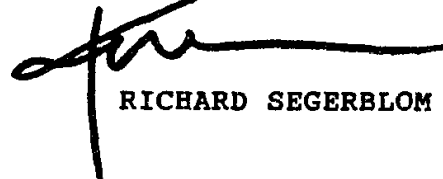

On January 5, 1987 I filed a formal Complaint with the Federal Election Commission alleging extraordinarily serious misconduct on the part of a number of individuals and entities including inter alia, the Republican National Committee, the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, the Santini for Senate Committee, and James Santini. I strongly believe that the materials I submitted demonstrated a prima facie case of criminal misconduct as well as violations of the laws and regulations governing federal elections.

To date, as best I can determine, the FEC has done nothing to pursue that Complaint. I can only presume that you are hoping the witnesses, many of whom were elderly, will die before their testimony is obtained.

Would you please contact me and inform me if the FEC intends to move forward with this case or if I should go ahead and file a Complaint in Federal Court. I'd also appreciate it if you could tell me whether I should attribute this close to two year failure to act to normal delay, incompetence, or a criminal conspiracy to suppress evidence.

I look forward to receiving your reply.

Sincerely,

RICHARD SEGERBLOM
